

Skin Deep Wines

Pinot Gris 2013 Adelaide Hills

Love lost... Life remembered... Life worth living...

My mind's eye searches the fog of time....memories. I know it felt once! My damned curse!! WHEN??? The haze. The pain or lack thereof. A glimpse...a thread of memory...my beloved!! Stay!! It beats...stay!! The fog comes quicker. Gone for another season.

Passions entwined with memories and glass. As you hold this bottle you truly have in your hands a snapshot in time; a celebration of a vintage; a stylistic interpretation of varietal and regional characteristics; and now your memory of this very moment.

My heart is lost to me but yours to find. My life's work never ending; only to give and surrender to it. Can I regain? Regroup again? In your hands lies the truth.
